#CyThx: Making Others Feel Included, Supported and Valued

Andrea Wheeler, Architecture and Faculty Senate
• She is welcoming, open to new ideas from new people, and supportive of my future goals.

Arne Hallam, LAS Administration
• Arne is most generous with his time, expertise, and thoughtfulness. His efforts directly improve the quality of instruction students experience as well as the teaching.

Bob Currie, FP&M
• Bob has made me feel like a member of the team from my first day here at ISU. With his guidance, I feel integrated into the departmental structure and see my contribution is valuable and worthwhile.

Interlibrary Loan Staff, University Library
• The Interlibrary Loan staff are incredible. They manage to procure almost everything that I ever ask them to get and do so with incredible speed.

Julia Campbell, Agricultural Business and Student Government
• Julia is incredibly kind and is present in every conversation she has! She takes a genuine interest in each person she talks to.

Martin Thuo, Materials Science and Engineering
• Dr. Thuo is an excellent professor and mentor and a valuable member of ISU. He always makes time for students to answer their questions and ensure they actually understand material.

Steve Winfrey, Memorial Union
• Steve has been making it his focus to include more people in all aspects of his leadership of the Memorial Union. He cares about his staff and has demonstrated a willingness to listen and do whatever possible to help them.

Susan Cross, Psychology
• Dr. Susan Cross always makes me feel like a respected and valued member of our department. She is always available to listen to and support me, and she goes out of her way to create opportunities for me to advance my career.
